

Goodwill Staffing Services (GSS) formerly Goodwill Temporary Services, started as a pilot program for the State of Texas to place persons with disabilities in temporary government positions. The program went statewide in 1999, and has since extended to include positions in private industry. GSS fulfills all aspects of the Goodwill mission by working with community employers and candidates of all levels.

GSS is one of the largest and most successful staffing firms in the greater Austin area. We are people-based and market driven. GSS will elevate employer's staff sourcing standards, while improving their productivity and giving them the unique experience of giving back to the community. We do not charge a fee when you choose to hire our employees full-time.

SERVICES TO EMPLOYERS

The goal of GSS is to create a lasting relationship between the employer and the employee. We do not charge a fee for placement when our employers choose to hire our employees full-time.

Our customers benefit from a full range of services to supplement their staffing needs. Whether on a temporary or temp-to-hire basis, we have the team, tools and knowledge to offer added retention security.

JOB READY

GSS takes the time to evaluate and test each candidate for qualifying skills, dependability, professionalism and work ethic. Through careful applicant screening, including reference and background checks, our staffing specialists will get to know each candidate individually so that the right match is made for the employee and the employer.
