Community Career Expo Offers Central Texans Job Resources and Opportunities One Community. Hundreds of Jobs. Find Your Fit.

WHAT: The City of Austin, Goodwill Industries of Central Texas, Workforce Solutions—Capital Area and The Austin American-Statesman are partnering together for the most inclusive employment event in Central Texas—The Twelfth Annual Community Career Expo. This FREE event is open to the public and will offer accessible resources to employers and job seekers, including access to Spanish and Sign Language interpreters for on-site interviews as well as sighted guides and a technology center for on-site applications.

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet with some of Austin's top employers in a variety of different industries. The Expo will also provide job seekers with professional resources such as resume and job application critiquing, and the chance to attend job search workshops that can help attendees gain the edge they need to get the job in this competitive market.

Last year's Expo brought more than 1,600 job seekers, and this year more than 2,000 of the area's employers and job candidates are expected to attend this inclusive employment event.

WHEN: Wednesday, May 12 from 9:00 am – 3:00 pm
Community leaders will usher in the event with a ribbon cutting at 8:45 AM.

WHERE: Goodwill Community Center (corner of 183 & 135)
1015 Norwood Park Blvd.
Austin, TX 78753

Community Career Expo details can be found on the information line at 637-7571. For more information and to register online as a job seeker or employer, visit www.austingoodwill.org.
